Island Court Care Home is a 55 bedded nursing and residential home located in Bilston providing nursing and residential care for older people including those with Dementia.

Island Court Care Home Overview

Island Court provides care of the highest quality on a permanent or respite basis, and in comfortable and homely surroundings, Island Court Care Home is tailored to the individual. The aim is to provide as much independence as possible, whilst treating residents and their family and friends with dignity and respect.

Resident safety is of paramount importance to us and resident's enjoyment of home life which consists of personal choice, family life, social activities and the mealtime experience.

Understanding all our residents come from different walks of life, our staff and management training is designed to ensure a truly inclusive experience for those entrusted to us to provide care.

There's a communal and informal environment within the home, which includes residents spending time together in lounges and dining areas, and taking part in activities and events.
